

I think that it is a BAD idea to allow commercial banks (or any commercial group) to bypass the no-call list. This is my home and I pay for the telephone service. No one should be allowed to enter my home without my permission.
Don't give the banks a variance.